

*ICE2024-PAWS

The International Congress of Entomology 2024 (ICE2024) has established the Presentation Awards for Women Scientists (hereinafter referred to as "PAWS") to encourage women scientists to pursue their academic/technical research and international activities to increase their visibilities. We invite women presenters to apply for the PAWS award. We welcome applications from those who meet the following requirements.

1. eligibility requirements

Applicants for this award must meet the following requirements.

The women applicant must be the first author of an oral or poster presentation at ICE2024.

2. About the Award

The electronic certificate of commendation will be awarded.

3. Selection Method

It is expected approximately 10% of nominee will be selected by voting of all participants based on their overall judgment of the research, the clarity of the presentation materials, and the quality of the explanations.

4. Application

When submitting an abstract, check the "Apply" box.

It is possible to apply both this Award and Presentation Awards for Young Scientists (ICE2024-PAYS) if the applicant is eligible.

5. Award Results

The winners will be announced at the closing ceremony and an electronic award certificate will be sent to the e-mail address on the application. After the award ceremony, the winners will be posted on the ICE2024 website.
